
Ref: DOB/RESEARCH/20160323

Opening for Research Assistant –Safety Culture in Construction

Job Title: Research Assistant

Date posted: Apr 1, 2016

Period of employment: 1 year full-time (with possibility of extension)

Duties and responsibilities:

The research assistant will conduct research-related activities such as:

- Conduct interviews with Chinese, Indian, and Bangladesh workers, and project managers and supervisors in the construction industry;
- Conduct qualitative data analysis using software such as NVivo;
- Conduct statistical analysis using SPSS, R or other statistical software; and
- Write research papers, reports and proposals.

Requirements:

- At least a good degree with honours;
- Good knowledge of qualitative research and basic statistical analyses;
- Good writing skills; and
- Candidate must pursue a PhD or Master by research under the Principal Investigator.

Remuneration:

- Salary will commensurate with the candidate's qualification and experience.

Other Details:

- Candidates with the following experience or knowledge will be preferred:
 - Publications in peer-reviewed journals;
 - Safety management experience; and
 - Work experience in construction or other heavy industry.

Principal Investigator's contact details for further information:

- Dr Goh Yang Miang; bdggym@nus.edu.sg; +65 6601 2663